

THE HONORABLE MARSHA PECHMAN

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

WHITNEY SPICHER,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMERICAN FAMILY MUTUAL
INSURANCE COMPANY, S.I., a
Wisconsin Corporation; JOHN and JANE
DOES 1-10, individuals.

Defendants.

No. 2:22-cv-01116-MJP

STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE
ORDER

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
MAY 16, 2023

Plaintiff, through its counsel and Defendant American Family Mutual Insurance Company hereby stipulate and agree to the entry of the following Protective Order regarding the Confidential Information more particularly described below.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Discovery requested in this matter includes materials that may qualify for protection under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not

1 confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords
2 from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled
3 to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively
4 entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

5 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

6 “Confidential” material may include but is not limited to the following documents and 7 tangible things designated by one or more parties to be produced or otherwise exchanged:

8 American Family’s policies and procedures related to claims handling, course and training
9 materials, confidential and proprietary information for UIM claims for the time period of March 10 23, 2019 to June 14, 2022.

11 3. SCOPE

12 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material, but 13 also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, excerpts,
14 summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 15 presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material. However, the 16 protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the public domain or becomes 17 part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

18 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

19 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
20 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case for only prosecuting,
21 defending, or attempting to settle litigation for any client they represent arising from this litigation.
22 Confidential material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions
23 described in this agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving 24 party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons
25 authorized under this agreement.

1           4.2     Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered
 2 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any
 3 confidential material only to:

4           (a)     the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of
 5 counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for use in this case;

6           (b)     the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the receiving
 7 party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties agree that
 8 a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so designated;

9           (c)     experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this
 10 litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

11           (d)     the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

12           (e)     copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 13 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
 14 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
 15 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

16           (f)     during their depositions or court proceedings, witnesses in the action to whom 17 disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 18 Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the Court,
 19 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential
 20 material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except 21 as permitted under this agreement;

22           (g)     the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 23 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

24           4.3     Public Release or Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material 25 or discussing or referencing the content of such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

(a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within thirty days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

(c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic

1 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to
 2 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the
 3 original designation is disclosed.

4 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
 5 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 6 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in
 7 a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer with other
 8 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
 9 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-
 10 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

11 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
 12 intervention, either party may file and serve a motion to challenge or retain confidentiality under 13 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 14 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 15 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 16 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

17 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
 18 LITIGATION

19 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
 20 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 21 must:

22 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena
 23 or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 90 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain confidential material. All such material shall remain subject to the confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement after the termination of this litigation.

The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

II. ORDER

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any documents in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other federal or state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection, or any other privilege or protection recognized by law.

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington on _____ in the case of Perez v. American Family, No. 2:20-cv-00849-RSM. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand
